The Charitable Treasures Workshop has announced the 4th annual Vino & Notes Wine, Food and Jazz Festival at Memorial Park in Woodland Park, Colorado. Commemorative Wine Tote to first 500 entrants

WOODLAND PARK, CO: Wine, food and jazz festival and all the celebrations of Summer are being planned for the 4th year on August 13, 2011 in Woodland Park, Colorado.

"We have 20 Colorado wineries signed up and our vendor spots – more than 50 -- for food, crafts and unique items are sold out," said Jamie Caperton, Executive Director, Charitable Treasures Workshop.

"This exciting outdoor afternoon of fun will be showcased with three outstanding jazz groups including the Michael Friedman Jazz Trio, Max Wagner Trio and Tony Exum, Jr.," Caperton said.

Gates open at noon with music beginning at 12:30 p.m. This year's event will be in "Old Towne" beautiful Memorial Park. Directions: Highway 24 to Woodland Park. Right on Fairview to Henrietta Ave. Left on Henrietta Ave. to Event Site and Check In.

Radio stations RXP @ 103.9 and khigh.co will be broadcasting.

"Everyone is encouraged to bring lawn chairs or be prepared to sit on the ground as seats are limited," Caperton said. Food vendors will sell BBQ, Mexican and Cajun foods.

Commemorative Wine Tote to first 500 entrants, Caperton said.

"We appreciate deeply the service and sacrifice of our military community and will again offer a discount," Caperton said.

Michael Friedman is a widely respected bassist, composer and educator. Michael has been captivating audiences with his bass playing for years. He is a powerful, energetic artist who is capable of going in a variety of musical directions.

"His bass playing is as in the pocket as it gets," wrote Jonathan Widran of the Los Angeles Jazz Scene.

"A Colorado mainstay," wrote Bret Saunders of the Denver Post & KBCO Radio. Michael has become one of the brightest performers on the contemporary jazz/R & B scene. www.friedmanmusic.com

Max Wagner is an eloquent and accomplished tenor saxophonist. A very lyrical and melodic player, he draws primarily from his own vocabulary. Max has performed across the country in Jazz Festivals, Concerts, and at Jazz Clubs; and has performed on over fifty albums with a wide variety of artists. www.maxwagnerjazz.com

Tony Exum, Jr. brings to mind the soulfulness of a David Sanborn, the sultry sounds of the late great Grover Washington, Jr. and silky smoothness of the late George Howard. Not a carbon copy of these greats but a distillation of those influences that formulates a unique approach to the saxophone and thus creating a voice of his own. www.tonyexumjr.com
